What to bring: A thorough list will be made available for later. For now, here is a list to start with:

- Bible/pen/notebook
- Bedding: sleeping bag, pillow, and extra blanket (optional)
- Clothing: t-shirts, light jacket, jeans or sturdy pants, shorts, tennis shoes, socks, underwear, swimsuit, pajamas, flip-flops for shower (optional) (Make sure you review the dress code.)
- Toiletries: toothbrush/paste, soap, shampoo/conditioner, deodorant, and any other items needed
- Other: towels (1 for shower, 1 for swimming), money for snacks, insect repellent, sunscreen

Cell phones:

Cell phone service is limited at Mile High Pines, while cell phones are permitted; campers will only have allotted times to call family/friends. We will make these times known. We do not want campers to be receiving calls during services, sport activities, etc. A schedule of activities will be made known to parents either through this website, FaceBook, or when campers are dropped off.

Lost or stolen belongings:

Mile High Pines Camp/Messiah West Coast cannot be responsible for lost or stolen belongings. It is important that you mark your name on all personal items.

Dress Code:

Messiah West Coast will implement a conservative dress code for both boys and girls. Modesty will prevail in all clothing matters. Likewise, any questionable slogans or graphics on clothing will not be allowed. It will be the judgment of any adult staff member to determine what is inappropriate. A thorough dress code will be made available prior to camp. For now, here are some general guidelines:

Camp Dresscode for Girls:

Swimsuits: One-piece swimsuits, with board shorts and a dark colored t-shirt over it. No cleavage, midriff, or rear end should show. If it's questionable before you get in the water, it will most likely be inappropriate when you get wet and start moving around in the water.

Shorts: Shorts should be mid thigh or longer. Also, consider how they fit, too. Not too tight, but not too baggy either. Keep in mind, during games and such, you'll be moving around, bending over, possibly sitting Indian style, so choose shorts that will keep you covered. Also, no biking shorts.

Shirts: No strapless, spaghetti straps, or backless (even with camisole underneath as we've allowed before). No bra straps, cleavage or midriff should be showing at any time. It is very helpful if shirts can be long that go below the waste, tank tops should be used as undergarments

Dresses/skirts: No strapless, spaghetti straps, or backless. Length should be knee length or longer (even with leggings on). Also, no tight or form fitting clothing.

Pants: No tight pants, no spandex pants, no

Camp Dresscode for Guys:

Wear appropriate swim trunks and t-shirt. No speedos or cutoffs. No droopy, baggy pants....no undergarments should be showing. Wear shirts that cover your torso completely...no midriffs showing. If you wear a tank top, please wear a tank top that is not too loose and doesn't reveal sides of your mid section or chest (i.e. no tank tops with very large arm holes). No "short" shorts. Also, consider how they fit. Not too tight, nor too baggy. Keep in mind that while playing games and such, you'll be moving around, bending over, possibly sitting Indian style, etc., so choose shorts that will keep you covered. No biking shorts allowed.

As we all may have differing opinions about what is modest, please don't be offended if you are asked to change or cover up more...
below are examples of what and what not to wear.
